

What Do The Plastic Recycling Numbers Mean?

	Abbreviation	Polymer Name	Some uses, once recycled
	PETE or PET	Polyethylene terephthalate	Tote bags, new PETE containers (food/non-food), fabric, sneakers, luggage, upholstery, furniture, carpet, auto parts
	HDPE	High density polyethylene	newer bullet proof vests, drainage pipe, liquid laundry detergent bottles, oil bottles, pens, dog houses, floor tile, picnic tables, benches, playground equipment and mailbox posts.
	PVC	Polyvinyl chloride	Pipe, shower curtains, meat wraps, decking, vinyl dashboards, seat covers, flooring, fencing, roadway gutters and non-food bottles.
	LDPE	Low density poly ethylene	Plastic bags, floor tile, garbage can liners, shipping envelopes, furniture, compost bins, paneling, landscaping ties.
	PP	Low density poly ethylene	Signal lights, battery cables brooms, ice scrapers, food containers such as Tupperware, yogurt tubs, diapers, outdoor carpet
	PS	Polystyrene	Desk accessories, cafeteria trays, toys, egg cartons, carry-out containers, coffee cups, disposable cutlery/cups, bakery shells, expanded polystyrene products (e.g. Styrofoam™).
	OTHER	other plastics any combination of 1 - 6	Plastic lumber, custom-made products